

SENIOR LEVEL AIRPORT GROUND TRANSPORTATION AND PARKING PLANNER

JACOBS CONSULTANCY, an airport consulting firm based in Burlingame, California, is seeking a nationally recognized airport ground transportation and parking planner (15+ years of experience preferred) to lead our ground transportation planning practice. JACOBS CONSULTANCY looks for outstanding candidates with strong credentials, a passion for client service, and who enjoy working as part of a team on cutting-edge projects for U.S. and international clients. For more information on JACOBS CONSULTANCY, please visit our website at <http://www.jacobs-consultancy.com>.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Maintain strong relationships within the industry and expand JACOBS CONSULTANCY'S reputation as an international leader in airport ground transportation and parking planning
- Lead ground transportation marketing pursuits and support airport planning pursuits with ground transportation and parking components
- Provide technical leadership necessary to keep the firm on the cutting edge of airport ground transportation and parking analysis and planning
- Serve as a quality control resource to airport planners within the firm
- Manage ground transportation and parking projects

Core Competencies

- Superior problem solving skills with a proven ability to manage several complex projects simultaneously
- Proven ability to effectively communicate, orally and in writing, with decision-makers at all levels within airport organizations
- Proven leader with strong time-management skills
- Highly resourceful and self-directed, and enjoy working in an environment that offers the freedom and autonomy to develop and implement best practices
- Traffic engineering, ground transportation, and parking planning skills
- Working knowledge of commercial vehicle business practices and fees; traffic and parking operations and capacity analyses
- Superior problem solving and analytic skills

Education

- Degree in engineering with emphasis on traffic / transportation engineering

JACOBS CONSULTANCY offers highly competitive compensation and benefits package and the opportunity to work side by side with recognized industry leading professionals, all looking to create a firm without limits to creativity and professional growth.

EOE/MFHV